Connectionpoint is a place where paths of innovatory thinking about reality come together.

Since the very beginning, we are taking part in the creation and development of clustering in Poland. We are convinced that contemporary market needs the introduction of competitive clusters. The same time We know that differences among cultures, traditions and local circumstances force to look for a different, unique model of introducing of clusters in each country.

Cooperation through competition is a very unusual but fruitful way of business development. Clusters works all over the world increasing the incomes of their actors and shifting the level of world innovatory.

They are profitable organizations for all: entrepreneurs, universities and regions where they have been implemented. For each of them they bring different profits but in the end They strengthen the entire potential of the region.

We are the first consulting company in Poland which has been launched to support the development of clustering and applications of innovatory solutions in business both. Now we provide the broad range of services including:

- ✚ Consulting
- ✚ Matchmaking
- ✚ Coaching and business trainings
- ✚ Researches

We do have a high skilled and experienced team which allows us to provide full services including consulting, researches and creative solutions.

We cooperate with different – private and public – bodies. Pragmatism, innovation and creativity mark our way. We are ensured, that success depends on the skills of managing the knowledge and the communication, that's why we direct our "paths" to safe and fruitful development. Your development!

We have been invited as experts and presenters to number of conferences, seminars, fairs. The CEO of Connectionpoint Mr. Marcin Jabłoński is also the correspondent of Europa Intercluster.
